PREZ SAYS

Rain, cold, and more rain... That was the picture for the Joe Pool tournament. I want to once again thank those who braved the elements to fish this one. The fishing as a whole was not great, but we had two nice fish weighed in. I felt that Nacona was our best chance this year to break the 6 lb. mark, but 2 were weighed in at Joe Pool. Roger and I were the lucky ones that got that elusive bite. We had 53 people fish the tournament, 8 people weighed in a fish (all got checks), and Roger Malone was the only one who had a limit. Way to go Roger...this proves what I have been saying to everyone that you are always a threat to win. Weighing in the littlest fish was David Mulcahy...weighing in a 0.39 lb. swimmer. It was big enough to get a check. Also, good job Linda Koch...showing Carl who's the boss by catching a bigger stringer that the Legend.

On a more serious note: We are starting to have a problem with people not paying for the tournament. I know things come up that make you have to leave early and you sign out, but we are having problems with calculating the pay out when people do not pay. If you can...please pay the entry fee for the tournament at the club meeting. If you cannot...please make sure that you pay at the tournament and if you happen to leave early...make sure you give it to someone that is going to the weigh in. This will help our tournament director and treasurer. They are having this burden put on them when it is our responsibility that this doesn't happen. Next Month: We are going to be at Nacona. Long drive for the possibility for good sacks. This lake is ready to give up some big stringers, so set the hook and hang on tight. The federation is going to be on the road down to the Waco area. Lake Belton and Lake Stillhouse is going to be the proving grounds for our anglers of the BCFW to show their stuff. Good luck to all that go...be safe and catch & cull.

Say Dave Mulcahy, what was that phone message from Carl Koch all about? Have they developed a 12 volt electric blanket yet. Maybe you and Carl can share that at the next tournament.....
